2019 was a strong year for lululemon, as our teams executed against our Power of Three growth plan. We are now navigating an extraordinary environment, which is currently impacting our business. The strength of our brand and strong financial position will help us manage through the day-to-day, while continuing to effectively plan for and invest in our future. I want to thank our people around the globe for the results they delivered in 2019, and for their perseverance and commitment to our brand each and every day.
